

Rural plots with olive grove and energy self-sufficiency

For sale, rustic land with olive trees in full production, located in a privileged natural setting with spectacular mountain views.

According to the Cadastre, the property includes two buildings with a total of 139 m², providing additional possibilities for storage, agricultural use, or auxiliary facilities.

The property features a water tank, a WC installation with pit, and 18 solar panels installed two years ago, ensuring autonomy and functionality.

Ideal for agricultural use, thanks to its productive olive trees and the ample land area. Situated very close to the Peralada Golf Course, it enjoys an exceptional location, surrounded by nature and tranquility.

Unique space for those seeking a rural environment, peace, and an incomparable landscape, with wide and versatile land ready for exploitation.
